ATP/ENERGY Education Consulting and Teacher Training, LLC.

Hello! My name is Aletha Cassity and I have taught for more than 15 years at various levels including elementary, secondary, and college. I am an educator at heart and have a passion for teaching and learning. I currently hold a Bachelor's Degree in Apparel Design (FSU), a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction (UCM), an Education Specialist Degree in Educational Leadership with an emphasis in Principalship (ASU), and an Adjunct Certification (JCCC). I am trained in Assessment Construction, Curriculum Design, Best Practices in Teaching, Reading Instruction, Learning Styles, Levels of Cognitive Thinking, Educating the Exceptional Child, Teacher Training, Teacher Evaluation, and K-12 School Leadership. I look forward to pouring into you the knowledge that has been poured into me so that you can reach your goals as you embark on the honorable task of educating your children.
