

NIK

DOUGLAS

A musician hailing from Ferguson, Missouri with a heart of talent and a creative mind. Nik Douglas brings an electric element to the collective song of humanity. Working as a professional musician for many years, he's performed with several Kansas City artist, both seasoned and up-and-coming alike, fulfilling his ambitions to be and see diversity in the world. With an active community presence on local stages, Nik also maintains service in academia, providing the inner city with music instruction.