

5 DAILY

Affirmations

FOR HOMESCHOOLING MAMAS

1 I AM EQUIPPED to homeschool my child. No one else is more vested in my child/children's academic success. No one knows them better or loves them more.

2 I AM BRAVE enough push through any fear and anxiety. Even when I'm uncertain, I will trust the process and keep moving forward in my homeschooling journey.

3 I AM HUMBLE enough to learn and explore with my child. I will admit when I am wrong or when I don't know the answer. I will seek outside help and advice when necessary.

4 I AM FLEXIBLE enough to try new things and make changes to our schedule and lessons until I find what works for me and my child/children.

5 I AM A HOME EDUCATOR working to create a safe space for my child/children to learn and grow spiritually, mentally, physically, emotionally, and academically.
